Bethel: Selectmen stand by higher budget figures

By MICHAEL DANIELS
The Bethel Board of Selectmen decided Monday night to stick with their original proposal for the town's next municipal budget.
The selectmen voted unanimously to submit two sets of budget recommendations to Town Meeting voters—their own and those of the town's Budget Committee.
The two committees agreed on the overwhelming majority of items in the town $1 million-plus budget. The primary areas of disagreement involved the proposed Capital Improvement Plan and roads expenditures.
In total, the Budget Committee recommends spending $1,169,542 on town expenses (not including school and county levies). The figure is $94,625 less than the selectmen propose, but $57,600 more than the town's current municipal budget.
The selectmen's proposed Capital Improvement Plan (CIP) took the largest Budget Committee hits.

Telstar OMers take state title

By WENDY HANSCOM
A team of Telstar Middle School seventh-graders will be travelling to College Park, Md. to compete in the Odyssey of the Mind World Competition in June.
The team took first place in their division at the state OM competition held Saturday at the University of Maine at Orono.
Team members Caitlin Bass, Katie Chapman, Teri Chadbourne, Martha Grover, Michelle McInnis and Laurie Young won their Division 2 problem area. The team performed an analogy of "The Old Man and The Sea" by Ernest Hemingway.
If the team and its supporters can raise the money for the trip, they will compete in the World Competition at University of Maryland in College Park, Md. on June 3 through 5. Teams from all over North America, Europe and the Far East will also compete at the meet.
Team coaches Donna Richards and Jean Bass say the team will need to raise $4,000 to $5,000 to take the trip.
The OMers will ask for community donations to help make the trip to Maryland. Several fundraising activities will also be held, Richards said.
The OMers advanced to the state meet after taking first at the recent regional OM competition held at Mountain Valley High School. At the regional event, the seventh-

Bomb scare charges likely

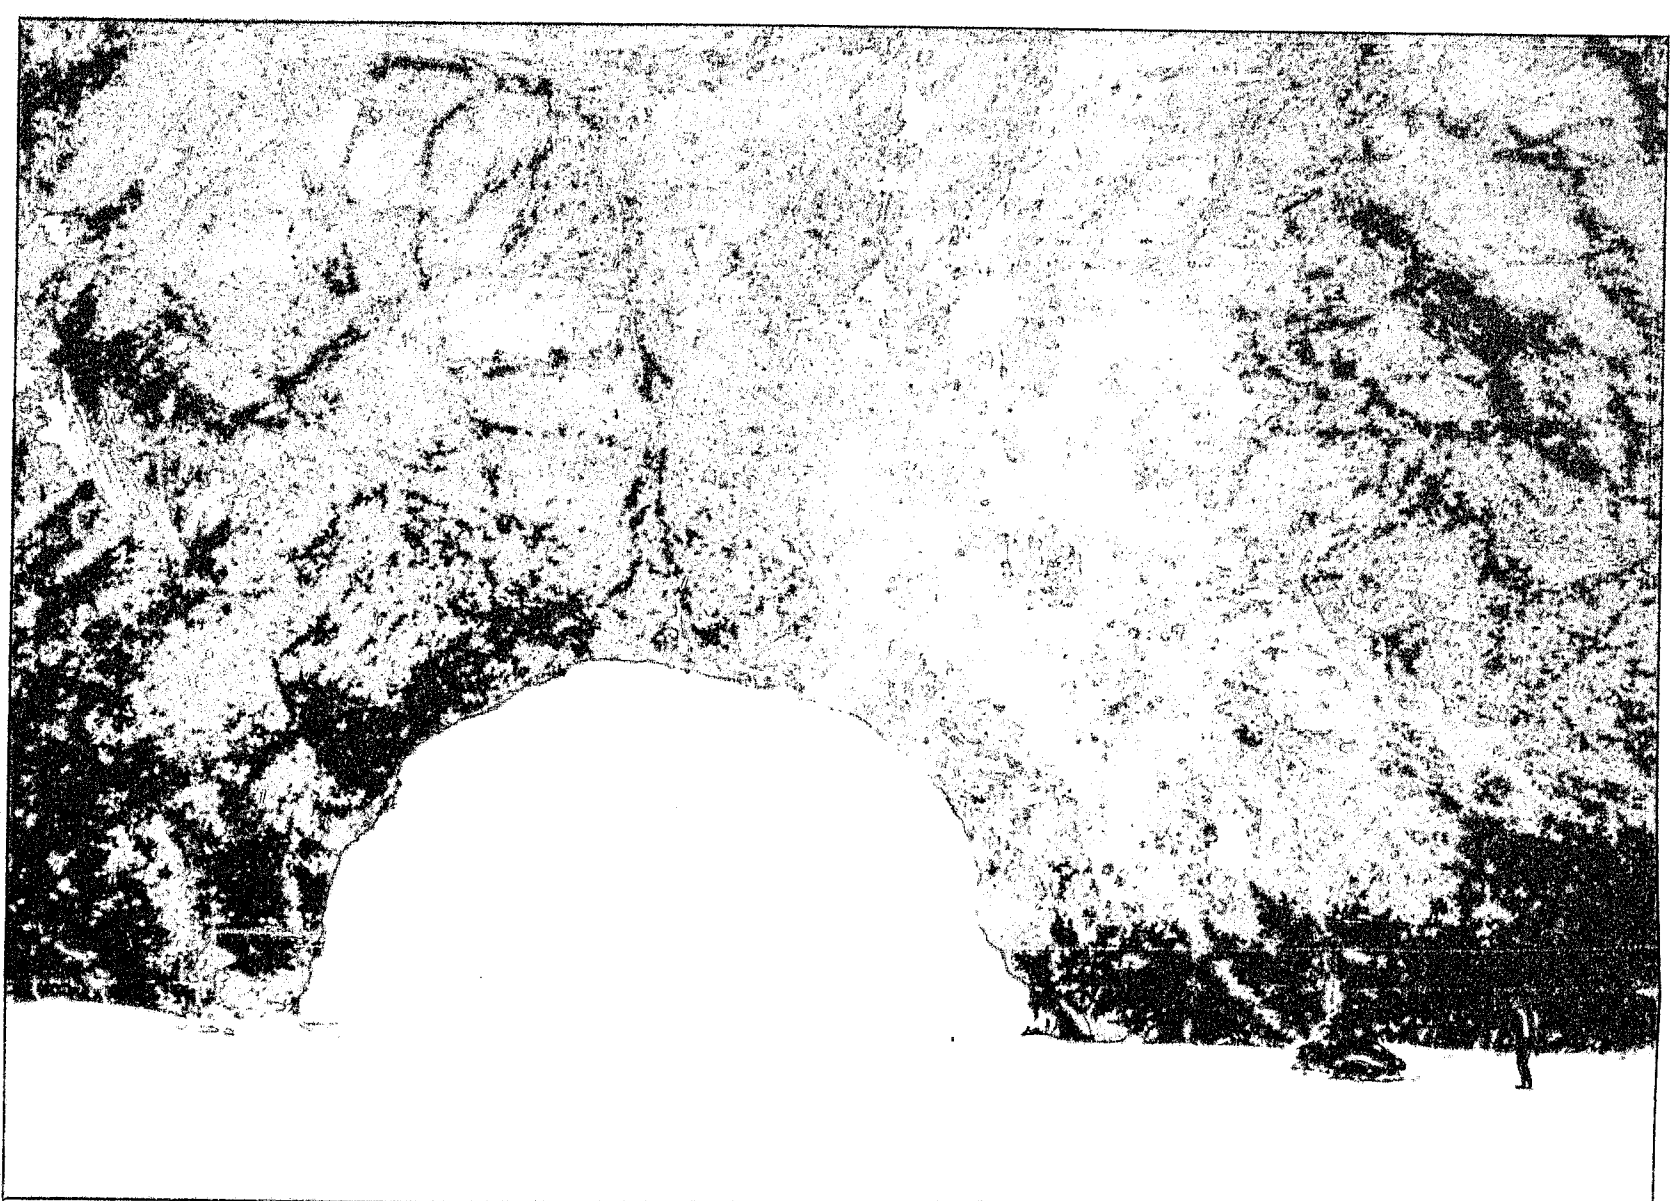

By MICHAEL DANIELS
A suspect has been identified in two of the three bomb scare threats last month at Telstar High School.
Bethel Police Chief Dale Bellman said he expects to place charges for the first two threats against a juvenile, as soon as the necessary paperwork has been completed. The juvenile's name was not released.
Bellman said the town will also seek restitution for the expenses involved in searching the building for the bombs. Those expenses include the time of the emergency services personnel who responded to the threats, including the police, fire department and ambulance service.
SAD 44 Superintendent Dwayne Craig said the school district will also take disciplinary action if and when the juvenile is convicted, as well as pursue criminal charges and seek restitution for school expenses.
Bellman said the investigation of the third bomb scare is still underway, and that no suspects in the third incident have yet been identified.

The calls in at least two of the incidents are believed to have originated out of state, Bellman said, but in the case of the latest

Local cross country ski area to host national conference

Sunday River Inn & Cross Country Ski Center in Newry will host the 1993 Convention of Cross Country Ski Area Association, the trade organization of cross-country ski area operators and equipment suppliers in the United States and Canada.
"For years we have been travelling to exotic spots in the West like Sun Valley, Park City, and Big Sky for this meeting," said inn owner Steve Wight. "We are thrilled to be bringing the event to the East for the first time, and we are particularly excited to host it at Sunday River. Members all across both countries are looking forward to coming east, and we plan to give them a show that they'll long remember."
Sunday River won the bid to host the convention after Wight made a proposal to the gathering in Whitefish, Mont. last April.
"We were the first convention to book at Sunday River's new Summit Hotel, and Les Otten, the resort's president, will serve as our keynote speaker," Wight said.
Major portions of the conference will take place at The Summit, including workshops and idea sharings, demonstration by grooming manufacturers, an industry trade show, a Downeast Clambake, and four on-snow competitions.
"This will be the first time that we've had snow right outside the door," Wight says. "The industry is psyched."
In addition there will be tours of Bethel, opportunities for dining in area inns, meetings and tours at Sunday River Cross Country, a midnight ride to L.L. Bean and other uniquely Maine features.
Following the conference there will be opportunities to further discover New England with a Telemark skiing trip to Tuckerman's Ravine, a canoe safari, a shopping tour of Portland, a visit to the Franconia, N.H., ski museum. There will also be tours of area cross-country facilities, a ski social at Carter's Cross Country Center in East Bethel on April 14, and a ski festival on April 17 at Carter's featuring equipment demos, all-day skiing and lunch.
More information on the conference may be obtained by contacting Steve Wight at Sunday River Inn, 824-2410.

NATURE'S CATHEDRAL—George Hayes of Bryant Pond is dwarfed by the massive vault of Perc's Rock in the bay of Carleton, Quebec. Hayes said the huge rock formation is only accessible in the winter when the ocean freezes over. (Photo by Pete Rosenberg)

Bryant Pond snowmobilers explore Canada

By WENDY HANSCOM
George O. Hayes and Pete Rosenberg of Bryant Pond recently returned from an 12-day, 2,100 mile snowmachine trip through New Hampshire, Vermont and Quebec to the Gaspé Peninsula in New Brunswick.
The pair was particularly interested in examining Perc's Rock in the bay off Carleton, Quebec.
The rock formation stands well above water in the Atlantic Ocean and is home to scores of birds in the summertime, Hayes said.
Once the ocean is frozen over in the winter, he said, the huge formation is accessible by snowmachine. Hayes said another highlight of the trip was the breathtaking views of the St. Lawrence seaway.
Hayes also had high praise for the Canadian snowmachine trails system.
"The trail system in Canada is marked just like highways here," he said. "They even advertise motels along the trails. We also had a map of everywhere we went."

The two men got lost only twice along the way, which took them only about ten miles out of their way, Hayes said.
The men's snowmachines also gave them little trouble. One minor breakdown near Jackman was repaired quickly at Jackman Hardware on a Sunday afternoon.
Weather during the trip varied from bright sunny days to 24 degrees below zero mornings. "You just have to be able to dress for all types of weather," Hayes said.
Snow cover varied from three to seven feet. The men spent only one day breaking trail after a snow storm.
Hayes said fuel costs in Canada are almost double those in the United States, but lodging and food rates were about the same as at home.
This is the fourth trip the two men have made to Canada, and they are already planning another trip for next year.

Legion baseball ready to bounce back in Bethel

THE LAST BETHEL LEGION TEAM, 1976—Members on page three.

By WENDY HANSCOM
After a 17-year hiatus, the boys of summer will play American Legion baseball in the Bethel area again this year.
The Jackson-Silver American Legion Post #68 in Locke Mills is sponsoring the team's return.
The Legion's last team disbanded after the 1976 season.
The post has been co-sponsoring the Northern Oxford County Legion team, which plays its home games in Rumford. But Jackson-Silver Post officials felt there was enough interest to start a SAD 44-area team, according to Post Second Vice Commander Brian Strickland.
It will take about $5,500 to get the team started up, Strickland said.
"The post is pretty much committed to raising half the money," he said. "We're hoping the community will raise the other half."

SAD 44 officials have approved the use of the Telstar High School's ballfield, he said. The team will need money for new uniforms, bats, balls and umpire fees.
Former Telstar baseball player Nate Buckman of Bethel will coach the team. Andy Bartlett will serve as Post athletic director.
Players 15 to 18 years old will be eligible for the team. The season begins as soon as school lets out, Strickland said, and half the games will be played at home. Playoffs are held in early August. There will be approximately 24 games to a season, he said.
The Legion is prohibited from interfering with the high school baseball season, he said, so players cannot sign up for the team until after school closes for the year. A

CHEERS BOMB CHANGES

To the Editor:

There are several categories of people in this world: movers, shakers, followers, those who remain complacent, armchair grumblers—and staunch system believers.

After the (school) board meeting in March I noticed new procedures were enacted at Telstar and outlined on the front page of a local newspaper.

Also, I observed after the last scare Maine State Police were called to the scene.

Hats off to those who participated or got involved. I give credit and praise where credit and praise are due.

Three cheers for needed changes at Telstar.

KIDS SEEK SEEDING MONEY

To the Editor:

In SAD 44 we have a program called "Kids for Trees." All third-graders are planting evergreen trees this spring. In grades four to 11 students will take care of them. In grade 12, seniors will sell the trees as Christmas trees. The money from the tree sales will be used toward the senior Project Graduation activities in June 2002.

Students need money to buy seedlings in April. Would you like to donate the money to help us? Donations can be brought to Bethel, Andover, or Woodstock Elementary Schools. Checks should be made payable to: SAD 44 "Kids for Trees," Crescent Park School, RFD 1 Box 110, Bethel, ME 04217.

WORKSHOP THANK YOUS

To the Editor:

On Saturday a very special event occurred at the West Parish Congregational Church here in Bethel. Safer Families Program sponsored a day long training on domestic violence awareness for Oxford County clergy. Through the combined efforts and energy of many community members, and Safer Families volunteers, clergy from Bethel, Rumford and Oxford Hills area learned about the dynamics of domestic violence, theological perspectives and resources for women.

Some thank you's are very much in order. I would like to thank Rev. Bass for his gracious hospitality in hosting the conference and his consistent ongoing support of Safer Families Program. The women of the Bethel Nazarene Church, the Bethel Alliance Church, the West Parish Congregational Church and West Bethel Union Church supplied us with delicious luncheon dishes and salads and marvelous goodies to expand the waistline. Gerry Shimamura (a S.F.P. volunteer) and Ann Roy expertly catered the meal with their very special brand of cheerful competence. They were assisted by Kathy Mason and Joyce Seckinger (and boys).

Also, a thank you to the Bethel IGA for their donations.

Safer Families volunteers Nina, Wendy Penley, Ed Robinson, Chuck Mason, Ginny Ferrell and Joyce Seckinger, all made important contributions to this successful day through their preparations for the training and the workshop presentations. Dick Fain videotaped the mornings proceedings and we are most grateful for his skills.

There's always a "last but not least" and in this instance, Chuck Mason, deserves a very special thank you for his many, many hours of hard work and organization and leadership. It has been his idea from the very beginning, that this sort of training should be held and so it was and primarily because of him, the day was a great success.

COVERAGE NEGLECTED THE REAL ACTION IN NEWRY

To the Editor:

When I finished enjoying today's front page news concerning the fate of Riley Township, then continued on through the paper for "what else is news," my amusement ceased as I realized that no coverage at all was given on Newry's Fourth Annual Winter Carnival, except for a "stolen" snapshot of one of our main events. The photo, taken by Wendy Hanscom, was actually the Grown-ups' Snowshoe Race with Steve Wight (valiant winner in the high-tech paws), Nancy Babcock, Joe Aloisio, and Jim Sysko. Several families showed up Sunday, March 28 at noon for our "feast and fun in the snow and sun."

We had a wonderful time gathering together again, as a community might, after a long, dark winter. It's been, these four years now, a tradition to bridge Sunday River and Bear River Valley families creating a bond which says "we're all from Newry, our home, and proud of it."

The kids enjoyed games with snowshoes borrowed from Hurricane Island Outward Bound School in Newry, cross-country skis from Sunday River Inn and Touring Center, and colorful parachute loaned from Eric Shendelmeier. (The snow turned out too soft and sun too hot for our planned snowmobile and dogsled rides.)

Senior citizens relaxed with the season's warm sun and first cookout. Middle-agers, well, we shared concerns about schools and recycling, but mostly kicked up our heels and laughed our way through face plants in the snow and sprawling across finish lines. When it was over we said "see ya in June" when Newry's Recreation Committee sponsors another community lunch and the now famous "Battle of the Rivers" softball game. The Bethel Citizen may not consider these things newsworthy, but we all know better!

HEED THE SIGN

To the Editor:

Last Thursday in the late afternoon around 5 p.m. I was at the IGA. My husband and I were about to leave. There was a state cop standing in the parking lot carrying on a conversation with another citizen. We both saw an out of state car drive out of the parking lot the wrong way.

I looked over at the state cop and he saw it too. He just stood there and let it happen. Now my question is this. Is it OK to go out the entrance-way of the IGA? The state cop seems to think it is.

If everybody disobeyed signs we would all be in a lot of trouble. But the state cop says it is all right to break the law. The signs are up there for a reason, but nobody pays them any attention.

To the Editor:

Thank you for your accurate reporting of the Riley Annual Town Meeting (Citizen, March 31). The only exception to your detailed and truthful account was the photo caption. Those Newry boys weren't actually fleeing the scene. Rather, they were headed out to that brewery place in Bethel for supplies!

FILLING THE GAP—Workers from Couture Construction Company prepare last week to patch the pavement on lower Main Street—where a large hole recently appeared. The area above the hole, probably as far as Vernon Street, will be dug up this summer to find the source of the problem, Town Manager Madeleine Henley said. An unidentified water source is the likely culprit, she said, although poor compacting of the soil under the pavement has not been entirely ruled out as a possible cause. The entire length of Main Street, from Broad Street to the railroad tracks is scheduled to get its final inch of paving this summer, Henley said, and problems such as the one that created the recent cave-in "are why we wait a year before putting down the final paving."

From the Bethel Town Office

Please join me in acknowledging the work done by our emergency response team before, during and after the "storm of the century." First accolade should go to Dick Hosterman, our emergency management director, and from there to all the community minded folk who helped him out.

I would also like to thank the town employees for their professional can-do attitudes. As usual, you guys have come through for the town when we needed you most. I know sometimes it seems people only notice the mistakes, but be assured that most of us know that most all of the time you are doing a difficult job very well.

The selectmen and I have been learning a great deal about so-called "pay-per-bag" trash programs, with the idea of possibly setting one up in Bethel. Now that we can see the general framework, we would like to bring the issue to your attention.

The notion is this: we currently pay over a dollar in taxes per thousand dollars of property value each year to support the town's solid waste management. By instituting user fees, this expenditure would come off the tax rate, and people would pay only for the waste they generated.

User fee systems of financing services are more fair than property-tax supported systems. The largest reason for this is that non-taxable properties do not pay for their waste disposal because they do not pay property taxes. But user fees have no exception for non-profit organizations.

Another source of inequity is that property owners who generate large amounts of trash are charged no more than those who create minimal amounts of waste. In a user fee system, the less trash you create, the less you pay.

An added benefit is that user fees encourage voluntary recycling and sidestep mandatory recycling. People will naturally choose to recycle as much as possible, to avoid the cost of disposal. If we can increase our recycling from the current 8.3 tons per month to 10 tons per month, recycling in Bethel will cost no more than trash disposal. Anything over 10 tons per month is a savings to us.

There are several problems not yet worked out in the Bethel pay per bag proposal. But the greatest question is community acceptance. While the selectmen are not required to bring this issue before a town meeting, they would prefer to know citizens' views before committing to the program.

A public hearing will be held on the topic, but even before that time, talk to your selectmen so they know where you stand. I myself would be interested in hearing from people who have ideas about how such a program should be done in Bethel. If you have a methodology that you think is equitable to users and administratively smooth, send it along to my attention at P.O. Box 108.

Finally, think this over: a household that generates one 25 pound bag of trash a week; that has a hauler pick the trash up; and that has property valued at $85,000, is paying $3.69 for that bag. A household exactly the same except that it generates four 25 pound bags of trash pays only $.92 per bag. A $2 per bag fee would save household number one over $100 per year. Weigh your trash to see where you stand, you may be surprised. I find a tall kitchen trash bag to be about 15 pounds when full.

Alger was reported to be a prisoner of war of the German government. Edmund Smith was elected president of the Maine Farm Bureau Federation. Birth: Jeffrey Hutchins. Deaths: Esther Polvinen, Rev. David E. Burnham, William Richardson, Berle C. Gordon.

Jodrey noted that he predicted two years ago, when the town agreed to contribute to the station's start-up capital costs, that the station supporters would soon be back asking for operating expenses.

"They said they wouldn't," Jodrey said, "but here they are."

The print bid for this year's town report was awarded to Park Street Press of South Paris. Park Street's bid of $925 (for 500 copies) was the lowest of four received on the project.

BUDGET

The Budget Committee cut $30,000 which was earmarked to be put away toward the eventual construction of a salt-sand shed, and $5,000 to be put toward the purchase of a Town Office copy machine.

The budgeteers also cut $14,000 from the selectmen's $74,000 roads appropriation, and $14,600 from the selectmen's $234,918 public works recommendation.

In the matter of tapping town reserve accounts, the Budget Committee went along with most of the selectmen's recommendations, but they voted to pull $20,000 from the Street and Road Reconstruction Account and another $20,000 from the General Capital Account.

The selectmen disagreed Monday night with the roads cuts and cuts to the CIP, which is a new step this year in the town's long-term budgeting process.

"I was really disappointed when I came to a Budget Committee meeting and they tore it apart," said Selectmen Chair Arlan Jodrey.

Town Clerk Merton Brown said the differences between the two boards' recommendations could probably be attributed to their different priorities: the selectmen trying to meet the needs of the town (including long-term needs), and the Budget Committee members trying to keep yearly tax increases to a minimum.

"They just don't want to raise taxes this year," said Selectman John Thurston.

But Jodrey didn't buy that reasoning. "I've been hearing that every year since I've been on the board. It's the same old record being played by the same people."

As far as the town roads are concerned, Jodrey said, even without the Budget Committee's cuts, "We're just getting behind

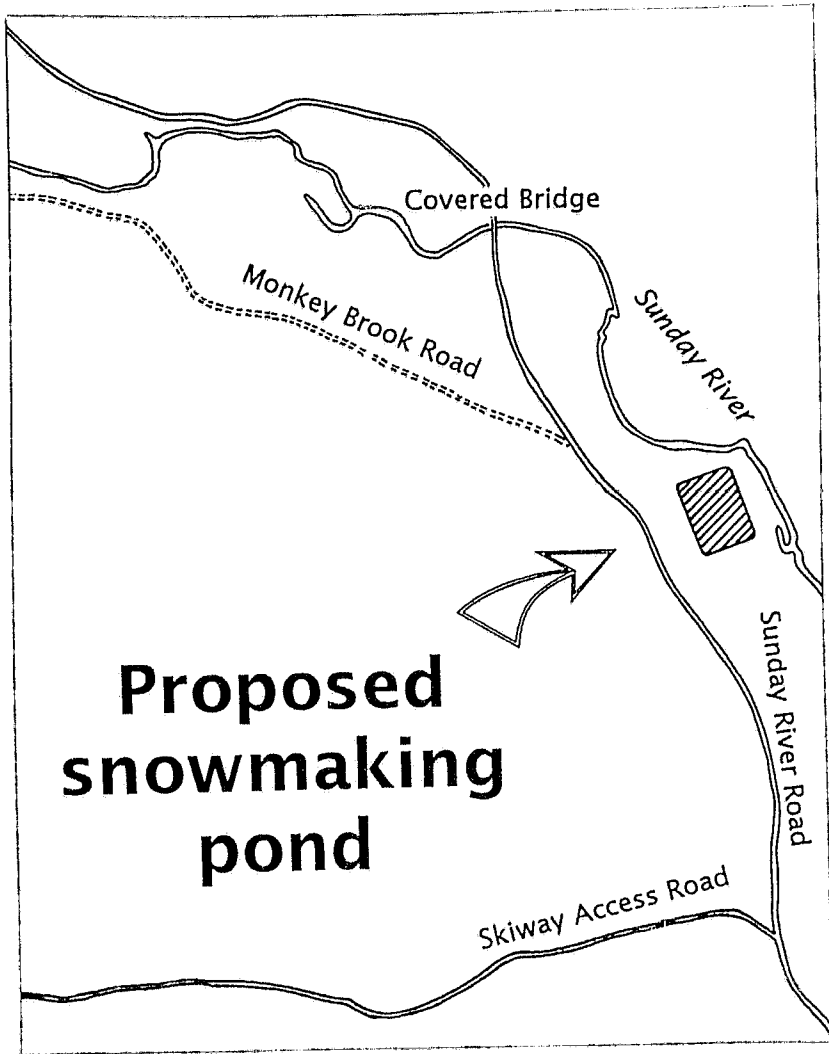

TV, historical requests included

The selectmen also agreed to include on the warrant a request from the Bethel Historical Society for a $1,000 donation to be put toward the 1996 bicentennial celebration of the town's incorporation.

The Budget Committee recommended approving the request; the selectmen made no recommendation.

The selectmen also agreed to include on the warrant a request from Public Access Channel IV that the town's franchise fee from United Video Cablevision (approximately $5,500 annually) be donated to the station.

The selectmen refused to make a recommendation on the request until they receive more information from the station on its finances. (The request did not go before the Budget Committee.)

DEP approves Sunday River snowmaking pond proposal

Androscoggin water may still be needed

By WENDY HANSCOM

Sunday River Ski Resort has received approval from the Department of Environmental Protection to construct a 21.5 acre snowmaking pond along the Sunday River Road.

But resort owner Les Otten said the ski area may still pursue plans to pump water from the Androscoggin River. The resort has proposed constructing a four-mile pipeline to draw water from the river.

"At some point we'd like to take water from the Androscoggin," Otten said. "We're waiting for it to get cleaner. Water is important to us. It would be a good idea to make sure we have alternative water sources."

Ski area officials have not yet set a firm timetable for construction, according to Otten, although he said digging may start as early as this summer.

The 21.5 acre spring-fed pond will be located near the Monkey Brook/Sunday River Road intersection, between the Sunday River Road and the river.

Sunday River engineer Joe Aloisio said the ski area's current water supply for the Sunday River is adequate at this time, but the pond will provide a back-up supply in case of severe drought.

Water from the pond will be pumped through the same pipeline used now for water from the Sunday River, he said.

If the pond meets the expectations of its engineers, the resort may also eventually stop pumping water from the Sunday River, Aloisio told the Newry Planning Board in August. The resort plans to excavate the pond in stages or "cells" as the demand for snowmaking increases, he said.

Cost for the pond's construction are estimated at $826,000. Once the entire pond is dug, engineers estimated the resort could pump up to 20,000 gallons per minute from mid-October to mid-April.

Otten said the resort has not yet considered any other recreational uses of the snowmaking pond.

TRAINING SESSIONS FOR WATERSHED SURVEY

The Greenwood/Woodstock Community Lakes Association will hold a training session for volunteers to survey the Lake Christopher Watershed on Saturday, April 10, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Maine Conservation School.

Volunteers will learn about water quality threats and how individuals can work to prevent water pollution. There are many ways that people can assist in this effort. Work on Lake Christopher is being funded through a grant from EPA through the Clean Water Act.

It is the hope of the Lake Association to do similar work in other area lakes. Volunteers will be identifying potential erosion problems. The results of the survey will be used to direct educational programs and efforts to correct existing problems. Knowledge of problem areas can also be used to apply for further funds to keep area lakes clean.

For further information contact Jim Chandler, 743-7019, work, or 644-2963, home.

Applications and further information are available from the Maine Rehabilitation Scholarship Committee, Ada Cookson, assistant coordinator, Maine Department of Agriculture, Station 28, Augusta, ME 04333; tel. 289-7526.

TRAILS CONFERENCE PLANNED FOR MAY 1

More than 200 people are expected to attend a May 1 conference exploring ways to expand Maine's recreational trails, greenways and open spaces. Sponsored by the non-profit organization Maine Coast Heritage Trust, this annual land trust conference will include 12 workshops and several keynote talks on trail development and land conservation. The conference will run from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, May 1, at the University of Southern Maine's Portland campus.

"Support for trails and public open space is growing dramatically," said Rupert Neily of Maine Coast Heritage Trust. "There are half-a-dozen major trails projects underway around the state and more are being planned. People want to establish green spaces and recreational lands close to home, and this conference will help show them how."

The conference will include two field trips to local trails projects, hosted by two local land trusts, Portland Trails and the South Portland Land Trust.

The conference is open to the public, but advance registration is recommended. The conference fee (which includes lunch) is $25 for those who register before April 23. For more information, please call 729-7366.

With just one week left in this tax filing season the Internal Revenue Service has offered the following hints and reminders:

--Don't delay filing to get any refund you are due. Processing takes longer later in the filing season. The average time is four to six weeks for paper returns filed.

--Consider Electronic Filing. Processing time is reduced and you could receive your refund in under three weeks. If you choose direct deposit of your refund, it could take as little as 10 days.

--IRS does not promote or endorse refund anticipation loans. These loans are a matter between the taxpayer and the preparer.

--Don't overlook tax benefits such as the Earned Income Credit. This credit is available for most workers with income under $22,370 who have a child.

--If you find you owe money and cannot afford to pay in full ask the IRS to consider an installment payment agreement. Taxpayers can fill out Form 9465, "Installment Agreement Request" and send it to the IRS along with their return.

--Maine taxpayers have a "one stop service" advantage and can contact either an IRS or state tax office representative for installment agreements on amounts owed to both agencies that are under $10,000.

--If you find your refund is smaller than expected or you owe money, increase your tax withholding by filing a new Form W-4 with your employer.

--All major IRS offices throughout the state are open until 6 p.m. on Tuesdays with additional extended hours available at some offices through April 15. Questions can also be answered by calling toll free at 1-800-829-1040.

Over 222,000 federal tax returns have been processed for Maine taxpayers; of these approximately 34,000 were filed electronically.

Andover forms dump committee

By BARBARA ADAMS

Because the Maine Municipal Association has notified Andover of new federal dump regulations, and because of other concerns, Selectman Wayne Delano said last week that the town is actively seeking persons interested in joining a dump committee as soon as possible.

"The committee is to study all possible options of closing the dump, recycling, and hauling away the trash," Delano said. "Brian (Mills) with his expertise and past work is the first member of this committee."

"We want to see what the best options are for the town and the most economical way of hauling trash. The state still hasn't decided on extending the closing deadlines, and if they do, they may expect the towns to show the town is complying with the law. I don't think it will be just an extension as it was in the past."

A recent Maine Municipal Association communication is of particular concern to Delano. It reads in part, "Whatever decision the Legislature makes regarding an extension of the December 31, 1992 closure date for municipal landfills, new federal rules due to take effect October 9, 1993 will complicate local decision making."

There are presently two bills pending in the Maine Legislature, one which would extend dump closures to December 31, 1995 and the other to June 30, 1994.

The October federal regulations listed specify that if a landfill stopped taking waste before October 9, 1991 the federal rules do not apply. If the landfill stopped taking waste between October 1991 and October 9, 1993 only federal rules applying to final covering of the landfill apply. Andover has not as yet stopped taking waste. At the March Town Meeting the town voted that existing limited recycling be mandatory should the hauling of trash be mandated.

According to the MMA, a subcommittee of the Energy and Natural Resources Committee is presently examining an extension of the closure deadline. Paula Clark of the Department of Environmental Protection met two weeks ago with this subcommittee and outlined some of the new requirements which would apply to the landfills taking municipal solid waste after October 9, 1993.

The federal requirements impose local restrictions relating to airport safety (birds), floodplains, and unstable areas. Existing landfills which are accepting waste after October 9, 1993, which cannot meet these location criteria must close by October 9, 1996.

Operating requirements which apply to this same category of existing landfills call for operating programs which exclude hazardous waste; daily cover of the dump; controlling disease vectors; monitoring and control of explosive methane gas; prohibition of all open burning; provision for control of water run-on and run-off; protection of water from contamination; restriction of disposal of liquids, and required upgraded record keeping.

Also included in the new federal regulations is financial assurance that closure and post-closure obligations are met. Maine municipalities are now exempt under state law, but according to the MMA, the federal rules will require municipal financial assurance for landfills accepting waste after October 9, 1993.

Notification was sent to involved towns that the DEP will apply to the Environmental Protection Agency by early May for authorization to administer this program. According to the DEP, "approval is likely and is an advantage for Maine municipalities operating landfills after October 9, 1993."

According to the MMA, "if a municipal landfill takes waste after October 9, 1993, it will become subject to the extensive and expensive new federal rules. DEP administration of the federal rules may provide some flexibility in the application of the new standards, but MMA is advising municipal officials to consider the implication of continued operation in light of the pending changes."

"One problem is the federal laws," Delano said last week. "I don't think the state can override them."

For the second week there was no regular Andover selectmen's meeting last week, due to the absence of selectman Kathy Williamson. A third selectman will be elected to replace the late Raymond Hutchins.

A FEW TAX TIPS THAT COULD AFFECT YOUR BOTTOM LINE.

Here, courtesy of the IRS, are some ways to increase your tax refund, or decrease your tax bill, on your 1992 return:

- Earned Income Credit. You may be entitled to a credit of up to $2,211 if your adjusted gross income is less than $22,370 and you have a qualifying child.
- Selling Your Home. You may be able to postpone the tax on part or all of your gain, or maybe even get greater breaks if you're 55 or older.
- Casualty Losses. Losses suffered from events such as fires, tornadoes, hurricanes, floods and car accidents may be deductible.

Elderly or Disabled. You may be able to claim this credit if you're 65 or older, or if you are retired on disability and were permanently and totally disabled when you retired.

Electronic Filing. This won't save you money, but will get you a refund faster, usually about three weeks after we receive the return. There are many more credits and deductions you should know about. Call us toll-free at 1-800-TAX-1040 for answers to any tax question. See your tax package for details on any of the money-saving tips above.

Spring has got to be on the way! Baseball sign-ups are being posted. If you missed the April 3 registration, sign up on April 10 at the Oxford Bank in West Paris. This is for children in grades one through six. Bring a birth certificate if this is the first year for your child. Cost $10--maximum of $20 per family.

The annual RIF Read-a-thon is underway. Children will be reading from April 1 to 30. The Read-a-thon is sponsored by McDonald's, and all money raised goes to the Reading is Fundamental program. There will be lots of prizes for the children, and teachers will be encouraging students to read, read, read. McDonald's gift certificates will be given to all children who read five books, or bring in $5. Special prizes will be given to the top fund-raiser and second runners-up in each class. Any sixth-grade student who reads 10 books, or earns $10, will be allowed to cut one inch off Mr. Koch's necktie. Mr. Koch will have to wear the shortened tie the rest of the day. Children from my fifth-grade class will be able to forego official book reports if they participate.

The second-graders, under the direction of Mr. Barker and Mrs. Merrill, are rehearsing a musical production. The play, "Best Friends," will culminate their study of social skills and getting along. It will be presented on Friday, April 9, at 2 p.m. in our gymnasium. Parents, relatives and friends, along with the student body are invited to attend. It is very impressive to see Mr. Barker guide the children into writing their own songs. Plan to attend. You will enjoy.

Parent conferences will be scheduled this week. Parents, please return your conference slip, so we can accommodate your preferred time. Conferences will be held on Tuesday, April 13. Rank cards will come home on April 12. We do want to meet with you to discuss your child's progress. We will also be offering a book fair that week. It will be a buy-one-get-one-free sale--a good time to stock up for summer reading.

Another reading idea that you will be hearing more about soon is a Book Swap. Parent volunteer, Dixie Inman, and second-grade teacher, Mrs. Merrill, are preparing permission slips and planning this venture. If your child has books that have been read, and are just taking up shelf space, this might be a good way to recycle.

STILL TICKING--Tri-Town Rescue EMT Chris Moretto demonstrates EKG equipment on Woodstock Elementary student Justin Palmer. Several public workers and others talked to students last week about their roles in the community.

GOULD ACADEMY SKIERS ON ALL NEW ENGLAND TEAM

The Independent School Ski Coaches Association has named nine Gould Academy skiers to the 1993 All New England Team, based on their top-ten finishes at the New England Prep School Ski Championships held last month. They are ski jumper Nate Wight; alpine team members Lelo Reeves, Abby Eaton, Leah Muliero, Johann Jaremczuk; and cross-country team members Gwen Stockwell, Patrick Cote, Erik Grimnes, and Matt O'Meara.

The Gould alpine team also took first place in the Maine Independent School league championships in all events.

BETHEL SENIOR CITIZENS

The Bethel Senior Citizens will meet April 14 at Moose's Tale Restaurant, at the intersection of Sunday River Road and Route 2, at 11 a.m. Luncheon will be $8, including tax and tip. If you do not have your membership card, see Sarah Stevens or Helen Saunders.

And, another project related to reading is being organized by Ida Gurney of West Paris. Four faculty and staff members of our schools were invited to a meeting at Mrs. Gurney's to find out information about forming a Friends of the Library group. The Arthur Mann Library may be small, but we want to see it used by as many as possible. There will be another meeting on Thursday, April 15, at 3:30 at the library. A Friends of the Library group will be more successful the more people it involves. If any readers, including teenagers, are interested in joining a group to promote library activities, please come to this meeting. If you are interested but can't come on the 15th, call Ida Gurney. This could be a very exciting project.

The spring schedule of programs, including activities for the April vacation, offered by the YMCA has been sent home with the children. If you didn't get a copy, it's on pink paper, please call the school for another one.

Kindergarten registration for the 1993-94 year is underway. Please call the Agnes Gray School at 674-2332 before May 1 if you know of any child who will be five years old before October 15.

Mahoosuc Arts notes:

A successful ten days, despite bomb scares and fire alarms, were completed by the physical theater artists-in-residence Paul Sarvis and Gretchen Berg.

Throughout their stay, the performers worked with Telstar ninth-grade students creating theater pieces that integrated subject material from their curricula. On the final day, the classes presented for each other their prepared performances. The works were creative and polished. Topics covered in class such as life in Medieval times and the concepts "culture" and "mythology" were interwoven in the final products.

One piece, for instance, addressed the many cultures within Telstar and the town of Bethel: the teacher, student, mill and ski worker, and logger cultures. Another piece presented life in Bethel from a mythological perspective; they created such characters as the God of Steel, the Goddess Atomic, and the God Bubba; each representing various elements of life in this area.

One of the final pieces explored the multiple methods of torture used during Medieval times carried out in the infamous dungeons within the castles of the period. The students cleverly constructed a story in which students sitting in a pretend history class fell asleep, only to find themselves trapped in a make-believe Medieval castle.

There the nightmare of being shackled and bound was played out in slow motion. The effect was captivating.

Overall, the students seemed to have a positive experience with the artists. The two people who helped bolster the validity of such a project were Charlie Raymond, who has now found his calling as a performer as he gave sterling performances with the kids in each theater piece, and Sherry Higgins who was super supportive of the kids and their involvement from start to finish.

We would like to thank these two teachers for their assistance, enthusiasm, and belief in the project's worth. We also thank Paul and Gretchen for their energy and persistence in making it work. This project was presented by the Mahoosuc Arts Council with the support of the Maine Arts Commission.

Another note for this week is about the upcoming theater company visiting the Bethel area on Thursday and Friday, April 8 and 9. Shakespeare & Company is coming to town to present an abridged version of "Twelfth Night" on Thursday night at Gould's Bingham Hall (7:30).

If interested, please call 824-3575 for ticket information. Additionally, they will be presenting two assemblies, one for Telstar High School at 10:15 a.m. and the other for Telstar Middle School at 12:51 p.m. on Friday. The material being presented at the assemblies is called "Shakespeare & the Language that Shaped a World." Based in Lenox, Mass., Shakespeare & Company is committed to making classical theatre accessible through performance, education and training. This project is also presented by the Mahoosuc Arts Council and Gould Academy with support from the Maine Arts Commission.

The final Mahoosuc Arts note is the date change for the DEVONSQUARE concert. The concert has been changed from April 16 to May 28 at 8 p.m. Please call 824-3575 for reservations and ticket information.

Joe showed a wonderful slide presentation depicting life in this facility. Newly renovated with many state of the art systems, the Rumford Community Home is a place where many elderly folks reside in comfort and happiness. Joe, in his verbal presentation, reflected on the difficult process families and individuals go through before they decide that a nursing home environment is needed. The goal of the Rumford Community Home staff is to make this transition as easy as possible for both the family and the patient. They encourage anyone with questions to come to their facility for a tour.

Guest for the morning was Bud

Maynard from Colorado Springs, Colo., guest of Nathan Seckinger.

The Newry Winter Carnival that was scheduled for March 14, but was postponed on account of the big storms, finally happened Sunday, March 28, with just a few people going with their children because there was no way it could be advertised more. So. Woodstock

By OLIVE R. DAVIS

The wild animals are coming out for food, as I stated before. Mr. Fowler reported seeing skunks and a chipmunk which has been a pet for some time but has been hibernating this winter and just came out. A woodchuck came out, also. I had a woodchuck that came out from under the shed and went under the barn at my home last week, so I guess spring is around the corner.

The maple syrup business started very slowly this year, but if it warms up it will be rolling before long. The snow is up to your knees, so they tell me, and makes it hard to get around to gather the sap.

The historical museum has many fine antique exhibits and a nice library. It collects many things that help tell the story of the town of Woodstock and our area in general. Do visit your museums in the area when open. What do you collect? How do you display your collections?

Curator Larry Billings has been reading some modern poetry.

Mrs. Dale Robbins was in the hospital (Central Maine Medical Center) for surgery on Wednesday, March 24. Mrs. Lucille Robbins has been helping her by taking care of baby Brodie.

The snow is melting quite fast this week. The temperature was up to 70 Friday at my house. It was nice on the porch in the afternoons this week when the sun shone.

Esther Davis attended the Freeport Lioness variety show Sunday afternoon with her daughter Patricia Tibbetts. Jerri Shorey was a member of the chorus. Phillip House was the organist for the occasion. This was a musical program and reported as being very good.

Richard Felt was in Stephens Memorial Hospital calling on Doris Lawrence, who has suffered a stroke recently, and other friends were seen there, also.

The Historical Society thanks all members and supporters who help with its activities and projects.

Curator Larry Billings has read three more books on museums, thanks to the Library. He also sent a few small items he had to other historical societies.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Andrews had dinner Tuesday noon with Esther and Olive Davis.

Richard Felt and relatives attended the funeral of Eunice Felt in Bangor on Wednesday, March 31.

Vernon Poland is in the Stephens Memorial Hospital following a serious operation.

April came in cloudy. Snow is not here as promised. April fool. It's coming so Esther told me at 7:30 p.m. So who is April fooled? I just wrote this and here she is.

Verna Swan, who has been in a nursing home, returned home this week.

Upton

By ARLINE BERNIER

Dr. James Hudson will be in Upton at the home of Mardie Edwards on April 9. For those who might like a rabies shot for their animal, call Mardie and she will help you.

The Town Clerk read a letter he received from the State in regard to non-resident taxpayers being allowed to vote at town meeting on fiscal matters concerning them.

Ladies' Aid met at the home of Lucille Largesse, president, because of the deep snowbanks blocking the driveway to the building. Lucille read a nice letter from Lillian Fuller Rose with a brief history of the Fuller family. We are looking forward to others sending in histories and/or pictures of their families for the cookbook. This is not only for those who have Upton connections, we are looking for recipes from everyone.

Winter returned after several spring days.

April is here wearing tulips in her hair; where does time go? TIME is a petty thief that steals from me each day. Bit by bit it has taken my youth away. It took from me a dear old road, where footprints are found and proof that I once walked there. It cannot be given back to me, although it fills a page that is a preface to my life, on which one may look. Down this road I made my way in search of happiness and found it in each living thing. There were flowers and fluttering butterflies. There were ferns, grapes, sunnys red and autumn skies. I found it in open wells, Mother Earth's veins, and buckets made of wood. But most of all I found it in a country school, where boys were boys and girls were girls and I had the right to rule. Our court was not a carpet red, but green with sod; a perfect rug for little feet that came to school unshod. This carpet ran around the school and formed a perfect court, where jurors settled grievances of every kind and sort. If the jury failed to reach a verdict then and there; it was my duty, as the judge to settle the affair. This was sometimes hard to do, but I miss those jury trials, and all the jurors, too, for they were part of my life which I've exposed to you. I never struck for a wage increase or joined a picket line. My compensation was, when fame came to one of mine. I found glory in each success and sometimes cried, too, for those less fortunate; thank God there were but a few. Now TIME has taken the school, the well, the wooden bucket, too. It has scattered all my fledglings from the nest. But it never took my love for them; that which I hold best. The ring of the iron tires and the clomp, clomp of the hoof are gone but not forgotten. Those live beneath memories' roof. TIME takes much away but leaves the birds to sing, while in my heart I'll always hear that old school bell ring.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Inman have attended several basketball games in which their granddaughters have played.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holt and daughter Jennie, of Windsor, visited Mr. and Mrs. Leonas Holt on Sunday, as did Mr. and Mrs. David Holt and daughter Mary, of Norway, also Ann Holt and I.

Little Lisa Piccirillo is much better and her grandmother has been with her some of the time.

Sally and Mary Holt and I attended the ice skating at the Civic Center in Portland on Friday evening.

At this time, March 30, the pond shows signs of spring for the ice is covered with water. Last year at this time the ducks had arrived and were swimming in ice-free water.

West Paris

By RUSSELL YATES

Good morning to all you fine people out there. It is cloudy this Monday morning and I believe that rain is predicted, but they can forget the rain and just give us some more of that 60-degree weather if they want to please me.

However, those that are making maple syrup like to have the ground freeze a little at night for the best run of sap, and without sap there will be no syrup.

Last Monday, after getting my news in the mail, I took a Pomona Grange manual down to Lettie Brooks in West Paris. Pomona Grange will be working the Pomona degree on April 13, and since my usual Assistant Stewards can't be with us for working this degree, I had to replace them, and Lettie, God bless her, agreed to tackle the job of being Assistant Steward. This is a difficult office to fill, but I'm sure that Lettie will excel. A neighbor of Bertha Benoit took her to the hospital for X-rays of the hip that she broke several weeks ago. Then she had an appointment with Dr. Greenleaf. The lady, who took her down, couldn't wait to bring her home, so Peggy picked her up at Dr. Greenleaf's as she was returning home from doing her card work at Laverdiere's. She also helped Bertha shop at Shop 'n Save and at Laverdiere Drug Store before taking her home.

The next day we took water up to Bertha and then went to Auburn, where we shopped at the new Wal-Mart store. After shopping and having some lunch there, we went to visit sister Viva and Diane Dyke, the lady who stays with Viva days. Viva's daughter Wynona was home sick in bed with the flu. She had been to the doctor and hoped to soon be feeling some better. Her husband Michael was also ailing but had continued to work just the same. On our way home from Auburn we stopped at Stephens Memorial Hospital to visit brother Lawrence for a short time.

On Wednesday, March 24, we had a little snow to contend with, but it didn't amount to too much. Peggy went down street for an appointment with Dr. Mingle in the afternoon. She also visited Lawrence at the hospital and found him doing much better. I stayed at home and took care of some junk mail and wrote checks to pay some of those monthly bills. After Peggy got back home, we learned that Doris Lawrence had suffered a stroke and was in Stephens Memorial Hospital.

After having dinner and doing the dishes on Thursday, we took more water up to Bertha Benoit and then went to the Norway hospital where we visited brother Lawrence and found him doing quite well. We also visited Merle Ring of Bryant Pond. He had been in the hospital for back surgery. He seemed real cheerful and felt that the operation had been a success. They had him up walking some. We also visited Doris Lawrence for a short time. She suffered a stroke and her right side and speech seemed to be affected. She also had other company come while we were there. We now understand that she will be moved to a rehabilitation center in Portland today. We certainly wish her a speedy recovery back to good health.

Friday, Peggy was gone in the forenoon doing her card work at Laverdiere's. I made several telephone calls trying to get a degree team together for working the Pomona degree on April 13. Then I went outside to work on the snow. Since it has been so warm days, I have shoveled snow onto the bare ground to melt. I've been told before that the Good Lord brought the snow and that the Good Lord would take it off when he got ready. I agree 100 percent, but I always felt that with a little help from mankind, he'd take it off that much quicker.

Brother Lawrence returned home from the hospital today. After supper, Peggy and I went to the home of Loretta and Emerson Merrill in West Bethel to take some packages for Loretta to carry to Georgia when she flies down on April 2 to spend a week with their oldest son Rusty.

Saturday was another excellent day and I worked on the snow considerably. The sooner the snow is gone, the sooner our driveway will dry up. It is rather soft at the present time. Saturday evening we attended the dance at Locke Mills. Some of the regulars weren't there, but there was a real good turnout of people.

Sister Laura came down from East Andover Sunday forenoon, bringing with her cloth to make an evening gown. Sister Laura is to help with the degree work in Pomona, but had no evening gown to wear. Sister Peggy put her seamstress skills to work and when Laura left for home, soon after suppertime, she had an evening gown to take with her. It had been hemmed on the bottom and was finished all but for a few minor details that Laura could do at home.

Other visitors in the afternoon yesterday were Barbara and Rudi Honkala from East Bethel. They had attended a meeting at the Finnish

FERGUSON AT DARTMOUTH

Robert Ferguson, son of Norman and Barbara Ferguson of Hanover, has accepted a clinical psychology internship position in the Department of Psychiatry at Dartmouth Medical School in Lebanon, N.H. The internship is a one-year requirement in fulfillment of the Ph.D. degree in clinical psychology. Ferguson has been attending graduate school at Nova University in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., for the past four years. He is a 1981 graduate of Rumford High School and a 1985 graduate of Bowdoin College. He holds a masters degree in psychology from Ball State University in Muncie, Ind.

American Heritage Home in West Paris Village, Barbara is a second cousin to us Yates.

After supper, we took more water up to Bertha Benoit. We all hope for an early spring and warm weather to melt the snow and thaw the ground so that they can again take care of the water problem at Bertha's.

The dances with the Richard Felt Orchestra will be held at West Paris Grange Hall on April 3, and again on April 10. Come one and all for a real good time. Also, don't forget the Food, Craft and What-not Sale at West Paris Grange Hall on May 1 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Tables are available for $2 each. For any additional information call Kathleen Holden at 674-2975.

To all of you Subordinate Grange Members who are waiting to join Pomona Grange, your opportunity to do so is upon us. Pomona will be working degrees at Franklin Grange in Bryant Pond on April 13. Supper will be at 6:30 and the meeting will start at 7:30. Bring proof that dues are paid in your Grange. I also hope for a good turnout of regular Pomona officers and members.

Louis Marcotte, from Rumford, called on the Archie Lovejoy family Thursday. Mary Lovejoy called on Bertha Benoit on Friday. On Saturday, the Archie Lovejoy family went to call on Marsha Baxter at her home in Oxford, but found nobody home.

Raymond and Impi Mack, from High Street and Glen and Gloria Gray, from South Paris took a trip into New Hampshire recently. They were in Colebrook and Errol and reported that there was less snow there than what we have here at home.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR SERVE/MAINE PROGRAM

SERVE/Maine needs volunteers who want to make a contribution to Maine's environment and natural resources according to Lillie Vitelli, the Department of Conservation's SERVE/Maine Program Coordinator.

"The 1993 SERVE/Maine Volunteer Directory lists volunteer opportunities with state and federal natural resource and environmental agencies throughout the state. I urge anyone looking for a way of making a direct and meaningful contribution to our natural resources to consider becoming a SERVE/Maine Volunteer," Vitelli said.

Fifteen agencies have listed 140 projects for volunteers in the 1993 SERVE/Maine Directory. Volunteer workers that are needed include people to monitor endangered wildlife species at state parks, assistants for fisheries restoration and other conservation projects and conservation educators for the Soil Conservation Service. The projects require volunteers with skills and abilities ranging from enthusiasm and interest in nature to highly-trained professionals.

Vitelli says the 1993 volunteer directory has been mailed to people who have already expressed an interest in becoming a SERVE/Maine Volunteer or who have previously worked in the program. The directory has also been mailed to libraries throughout the state. In 1992, 750 SERVE/Maine Volunteers contributed more than twenty-five thousand hours of work.

For more information or to obtain a copy of the directory, call or write to SERVE/Maine Coordinator, Maine Department of Conservation, Station 22, Augusta, ME 04333; telephone, 287-4945.

-4 feet	32 degrees
-5 feet	33 degrees
-6 feet	34 degrees

Ground temperatures are measured by sensors under Philbrook Street, where the surface of the ground is exposed and the subsurface is colder than most other locations.

GETTING PLENTY OF AIR—Bust and Burn competitors strut their stuff. (Photo by Sharon McNeill/Sunday River)

Stu O'Brien recaptures Legends crown

Stu O'Brien of Snowbird, Utah, recaptured his crown Sunday as Budweiser Legends of Freestyle champion. The competition was held on the steep, heavily moguled White Heat trail at Sunday River Ski Resort.

O'Brien, 36, narrowly eaked out a victory over 44-year-old Chris Thorne of Lake Tahoe, Calif. O'Brien won the Legends of Freestyle competition in 1991.

Craig Sabina of Hood River, Ore. finished third, after upsetting crowd favorite Scott Brooksbank. Legendary freestyle skier Wayne Wong was knocked out of the competition in the first round, when he fell just prior to the huge pro jump set in the middle of the course.

In the amateur Bust and Burn competition, which alternated with the Legends event, Steven Palmer of Woodstock, Vt. displayed amazing speed and daring aerial maneuvers to finish at the top. Peter Johnson of Lake Tahoe (formerly Newberry, Mass.) finished second, with Sunday River freestyle coach and Saco resident Doug Willet finishing third.

"The legends were skiing great, and this was far and away the strongest amateur field we've seen yet," said Tim Cohee, vice president of marketing at Sunday River.

"The skiing was hot, the crowd was dazed. We had a great time."

Sunday River expects to ski well into May—perhaps even June—this season, Cohee said.

The Bethel Inn & Country Club has hired Lettie Trespasz as head golf professional and director of instruction at the Guaranteed Performance School of Golf.

Trespasz comes to Bethel from the Quebec Club in Vermont where she was an assistant for six seasons. Director of golf Allen Connors said, "Lettie brings a new perspective to the resort. She is an accomplished teacher and has the uncanny ability that helps students relax and get the most out of their golf school experience."

Trespasz currently spends her winters in Naples, Fla., where she is a full-time member of the Royal Poinciana Golf Club teaching staff. "I particularly enjoy the teaching and golf school component of the golf operation. My experience at the Quebec Club, Stratton Golf School and Royal Poinciana will surely come in handy at The Bethel Inn & Country Club," she said.

The Guaranteed Performance School of Golf provides personalized instruction to students of all abilities. Small classes, never more than four students per instructor, use of video analysis and on-course instruction focuses on the specific weaknesses of each student. "We only allow 16 students per session. This enables us to communicate with each student extensively prior to arrival to determine their needs and goals. We then are able to personalize each session," said Connors. The process gives students more quality time with their instructor while at the school.

Beginning May 14, the school will offer three- and five-day programs that guarantee improvement. "We will give free additional instruction to students who aren't completely satisfied with their improvement," Connors said.

The New England PGA has once again selected the inn as site of the annual Fall Pro-Am Festival (Sept. 6 to 9). Professionals, amateurs and their companions from all over New England compete for top honors over three days. The tournament is actually three separate Pro-Am events. The team from Kernwood Country Club (Mass.) took the top spot last year on the first two days, while Willowbend (Mass.) finished first on the final day.

The NEPGA urges members to get their teams together and sign up early.

Pole, Paddle, Paw results

Forty-four stalwart and well costumed skiers turned out on Saturday to brave overcast skies and intermittent precipitation for the 15th annual running of the April Fools' Pole, Paddle and Paw Race at Sunday River Cross Country Ski Center. Race organizers and participants agreed that conditions couldn't have been better. The cross-country ski trails were in excellent condition with a freshly groomed powder surface and 30 inches of base, the Sunday River was clear of ice and flowing at just the right volume for safe yet sporty passage, and the snowshoe trail (extended to nearly two miles this year) was in excellent shape.

When the shouting and excitement was over the results were impressive: Ron Hoffman and Dave Breshin of Dover, N.H. won the Best Dunk award for being the only river mishap. Kirk Siegel posted the best individual time of 35:34. Ken Kimball and Doug Armstrong of Jackson and North Conway, N.H. were overall winners and first men's team with a combined time of 71:57. Doug Zinchuk, five time previous race winner, teamed up with local favorite Leslie Krichko to take the top mixed team title with a combined time of 77:37. Top women's team honors went to Gould faculty member and former Cross Country Center staffer, Deirdre Wellehan and her partner Alice Goodwin of Norway. Other winners were Ben Trafton of Auburn (youngest contestant, at 14-years-old), Saran Taylor of Norway (oldest contestant, at "something over 49"), David Coleman of Springfield, Vt., former Cross Country Center director and designer of much of the trail system including "David's Drop" (travelled the farthest to race), Brian Doyle and Jennifer Moore of Portland (time: 147:40-awarded prize for "investing the most time in the race"), and Dick Hoisington of Farmington, another former Cross Country Center director, and Saran Taylor (chosen by an panel of judges to receive the style award in men's and women's categories for flair at the finish line). Prizes for all categories were provided by Stowe Canoe and Snowshoe Co. of Wentsfield, Vt., Timberland Shoe Company, and Karhu Ski Co. of Burlington, Vt., sponsors of the event. Individual prizes included snowshoe furniture, aluminum snowshoes, skies, boots, maple syrup, and ski hats.

BUT up with the leaders the action was fast and furious as Doug Zinchuk and Leslie Krichko, winners of the mixed event, battle a though a turn in swift current.

1993 Tax Numbers Adjusted for Inflation

This article is brought to you by Jane D. Gray, CPA

The IRS makes an annual inflation adjustment to the tax brackets, the personal exemption amounts, the standard deduction amounts, and certain other tax numbers. These new numbers should be used in your early 1993 tax planning, keeping in mind that we're likely to see some of these numbers change again with new 1993 tax legislation.

• The income tax brackets for 1993 have been adjusted as follows:

SINGLE
TAX RATE	TAXABLE INCOME
15%	$1 - 22,100
28%	22,101 - 53,500
31%	OVER $53,500

MARRIED (JOINT)
TAX RATE	TAXABLE INCOME
15%	$1 - 36,900
28%	36,901 - 89,150
31%	OVER $89,150

HEAD OF HOUSEHOLD
TAX RATE	TAXABLE INCOME
15%	$1 - 29,600
28%	29,601 - 76,400
31%	OVER $76,400

• The deduction for each personal exemption increases in 1993 to $2,350 (phased out for taxpayers with higher incomes).

• Standard deductions have been increased for 1993 as follows:

Joint returns & surviving spouses	$6,200
Married filing separately	$3,100
Head of Household	$5,450
Single	$3,700

Higher standard deductions are provided for blind and elderly taxpayers.

• The amount of unearned income that children under the age of 14 may have before the "kiddie tax" kicks in remains at $1,200 in 1993. The amount of income at which taxpayers begin to lose tax-free exemption for college bond interest increases to $68,250 for marrieds, and to $45,500 for singles. The maximum payment that can be made to a 401 (k) retirement plan in 1993 increased from $8,728 to $8,994. The mileage allowance for business travel in 1993 remains at 28 cents a mile.

• The tax rates for FICA and self-employment taxes stay the same in 1993. However, the wage base increases to $57,600 for the social security portion of the tax and to $135,000 for the medicare portion.

BETHEL SUNRISE SERVICE

Local clergy will lead worship in an outdoor service at the top of Paradise Road in Bethel on Easter morning at 7 a.m.

Following the worship, an Easter pancake breakfast will be served from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m. at the West Parish Congregational Church by the church's senior high fellowship. Everyone is invited to attend both events.

SUNRISE SERVICE AT THE TOP OF BARKER MT.

The public is invited to a non-denominational sunrise service on Easter Sunday morning at the top of Sunday River Ski Resort's Barker Mountain.

Skis are a must. The Barker Mt. detachable quad will run from 6:30 to 7:00 a.m. to take service goers to the top of the mountain, but there will be no lift service down the mountain.

The service is expected to begin at approximately 7:10, according to Sunday River spokesman Skip King.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL

On Thursday, April 8, the congregation will commemorate the institution of the Last Supper with a light meal of fruit, bread and cheese followed by a worship service with communion.

The Good Friday Service will be conducted at 7 p.m. Readings commemorating the crucifixion will be given by members of the congregation.

Grange Resolution of Respect

Whereas our Heavenly Father has called our beloved brother, Clayton Kendall, from earthly duties to the Great Grange above. And whereas he will be greatly missed by the members of Pleasant Valley Grange.

Resolved that we, the members of Pleasant Valley Grange extend our sincerest sympathy to the bereaved family.

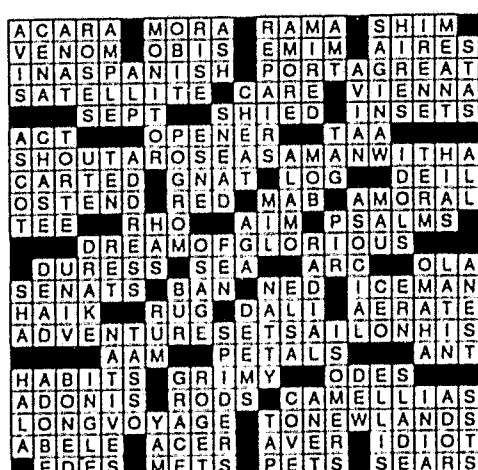

Ina Grover, Rupert Grover and John Applin

CARD OF THANKS

Many thanks to all who helped during our family's recent bereavement. First, we thank the dispatcher for her concern and compassion while I was on the line waiting for her to contact the emergency crews. We thank the Bethel Rescue Squad for their prompt response and the firemen who arrived spontaneously and swiftly shovelled our driveway to make way for vehicles. Our thanks to the police who made the necessary calls and waited with me until arrangements could be made and to Glenn Henderson for his compassion and concern. Words can not express our gratitude to our neighbors and friends for their calls, visits, cards and especially their prayers. A special thanks to Rev. Williams and those in the West Bethel Union Church who gave of themselves in so many ways to ease our pain. It is impossible to thank each of you but be assured your compassion and concern will never be forgotten.

The family of Guenther A. Mahler

Is Church Just for Emergencies?

Certainly the church is for such times. When tragedy strikes, we'd like to help.

But we're far more than an "emergency ward."

We're here for the everyday hassles and trials of life - because that's where we all live. "Little" things can get you down just as much as the "big" emergencies.

We all need inner strength to live in today's pressure-packed world. We need each other - we need to sense that we don't have to face the pressures of life alone.

Most of all, we need to know how to be in touch with a personal God who really cares about us.

Why not join us this Sunday and, among friendly people just like you, share in getting to know a loving Heavenly Father who really does care - when there are emergencies and when we hurt.

We care about You!
